Product description

This original GT3 wheel, measuring 20 inches in diameter and 9J in width, designed for the Porsche 911 992 model, is finished in black seidenmatt, giving it an elegant and sporty look. The wheel has the OEM number 9GT601025B JE1, which guarantees its authenticity and compliance with the highest Porsche quality standards. Designed specifically for the Porsche 911 GT3, the wheel has an offset (ET) of 43, ensuring a perfect fit for the vehicle and excellent driving characteristics.

Thanks to its design, the wheel improves road grip and steering precision, which is crucial for the sporty characteristics of the Porsche 911 GT3. It is a new, unused and undamaged product, which further emphasises its quality and durability. The rim is suitable for both the left and right sides of the vehicle and is designed for installation on the front axle, which makes selection and installation easy. Choosing this rim is an excellent decision for Porsche 911 992 owners who not only appreciate unique design, but also expect the highest quality and functionality from every component of their vehicle.
