Product description

This leather dashboard trim, specially designed for the Porsche Cayenne model 9Y0 built from 2018 onwards, has the OEM number 9Y1857003BBA11-003 and is an authentic original spare part from Porsche. Despite its signs of wear and visible damage, which can be seen in the accompanying pictures, the fit and high quality of this original part remain unchanged. The trim is finished in classic black and features a high-quality leather coating that gives the interior of your vehicle an elegant look.

This used spare part is ideal for Porsche Cayenne owners who want to replace a damaged or worn dashboard. It offers a cost-effective solution for restoring the interior without having to invest in a completely new part. Despite its classified poor condition, the price reflects the possibility of preserving the aesthetics and functionality of the vehicle with an original part.

The installation of this dashboard trim should ideally be carried out by a professional to ensure correct and safe integration into the vehicle. This will ensure that the functionality of the dashboard is fully restored and that the driving experience remains unchanged.

In summary, this dashboard trim is an excellent choice for those who appreciate original parts and value cost-effective repairs. Despite the existing damage, the part offers a reliable solution for restoring the familiar Porsche luxury and comfort.
